POLICY MEMORANDUM #5,

From: Executive Committee, OPSU
To: Distribution

Subj.: OPSU Youth Coach's Policy

Encl: (1) Youth Code of Conduct
(2) Parental Waiver/Medical Release Form
(3) Convoy Rules
(4) Equipment Requirements

1. This memorandum provides the general and specific policies relating to the youth team of the Olympic Peninsula Sports Union. It is the policy of the OPSU to develop youth rugby in Kitsap County. The primary focus of this is sponsoring a team within the Youth Division of the Pacific Northwest Rugby Football Union. The long term goal is development of a county summer "age grade" program.

2. It is the policy of the OPSU to develop and strictly adhere to Code of Conduct for the youth players. The focus of the Code is to stress the importance of academics and provide a guide for acceptable behavior. Since it is view as a contract, the Code also obligates the adult coaching staff to a high level of behavior. The Code of Conduct is presented in its entirety in enclosure (1).

3. Since a vast majority of the players are minors, OPSU has developed a Parental Waiver/Medical Release Form. This form informs the parents of the requirements to play rugby and provides for parental permission to play. The second portion of the form is a medical release form with the player's medical information and parental authorization to treat if a player is injured while under the care of the coaching staff of OPSU. This form is presented in enclosure (2).

4. Every season, approximately one half of the games are outside of Kitsap County with the primary drivers being the players themselves. The need to convoy has brought about several rules for youth convoys. These are found in enclosure (3).

5. In order to actually play for the youth team, the head coach must have in his or her possession the following items:

- a. Parental Permission Form (encl. (1)) completely filled out and signed
- b. CIPP form signed (USA registration).
- c. Legible photo-copy of Health insurance card that contains player's name
- d. Legible photo-copy of "picture" ID that contains players name and picture
- e. $30.00 dues

6. Like any sport, Rugby has specialized equipment requirements. See enclosure (4) for the personal equipment requirements.

YOUTH TEAM CODE OF CONDUCT

This code establishes the basic contract for behavior on this team, for both the coaches and the players. Once a player joins the team, he or she has made a commitment to abide by these rules. On each parental permission form is a location where both the parents and players sign indicating that he or she understands the code, and will abide by it.

1. Grades are a player's primary concern. Players should maintain at least a C average and grades will not fall because a player is playing Rugby. Call a Coach to let him know if academic requirements will prevent attendance at practice or games.
2. Use or suspected use of controlled substances (alcohol, other drugs, cigarettes for minors, etc.), or tolerating it in a teammate are grounds for a player to be dropped from the team. This matter is of such concern that a non-toleration policy is in effect. This means that knowing of a teammate using controlled substances and not reporting it, is the same as using it with the same consequences.
3. Racist, sexist, and bigoted jokes and statements will not be tolerated
4. Obscene, or profane, language as determined by the coaches is not acceptable
5. No player will be allowed to participate in either contact practices, or games, without a mouthpiece.
6. Fighting on the pitch will not be tolerated. If a fight appears to be starting, teammates will pull the offending player to a safe area. Fighting could get a player suspended from the league for eight weeks, two years, or life.
7. Rugby Activities are those approved by the head coach, and a coach is present at the activity. This will generally be for practices, games (set-up, competition, and clean-up), and approved social activities and fundraisers. If no coach is present, it is not a team-sanctioned activity, if it starts as one.
8. No player will be dropped from the team for lack of athletic ability.
9. Team is open to both young men and women.
10. Players will not be allowed to play without the following:
 - a. picture identification
 - b. CIPP registration *
 - c. medical waiver/permission form *
 - d. when requested, verification from school of student status.

* Unless a player is over eighteen, parents/guardians must sign these forms.

11. Players will wear the proper uniform to practice and games. At games exposed boxer shorts or non-black, or red, Lycra shorts are unacceptable. All players will keep their socks up above their calves.
12. Practices will start promptly at 4:00 PM. The team captain will start warm-ups and the standard drills.
13. Rugby is a game of gentlemen and ladies. Good manners are expected on and off the field, especially when a player is wearing clothing identifying him as a Rugby player for the Peninsula Ruby Club. Respect for the Referee is required by the laws for the players and expected by the club for the spectators (back talk, disrespectful behavior, or assault, either verbal or physical, will not be tolerated).

Enclosure (1) Youth Code of Conduct

14. As a club, all players are expected to assist the executive committee, of which the youth president is a member, whenever possible. This includes the routine, such as setting up the fields, or after game social, and the extraordinary, such as fund raisers.
15. Players are expected to attend the after game social.
16. If a player is severely injured, a Coach or someone designated by a Coach, will take him/her to the hospital. An adult, generally a Coach, will remain with the player until either the player is released, or the parents arrive.
17. All participants in Rugby will abide by the Pacific Northwest Rugby Football Union's Disciplinary Code and Constitution, and the Constitution of the Olympic Peninsula Sports Union.
18. Parents are requested to abide by the following Irish Rugby Football Union Code for Parents:
 - a. Remember, young people are involved in rugby for their enjoyment, not yours.
 - b. Encourage your child always to play by the Laws of the Game.
 - c. Teach young children that honest endeavor is as important as winning, so that the result of each game is accepted without disappointment.
 - d. Help young people work towards skill improvement and good sportsmanship.
 - e. Set a good example by applauding good play on both sides.
 - f. Never ridicule, humiliate, or shout at young players for making a mistake or losing a match. Encourage them through recognizing the positive aspects of their play.
 - g. Do not place emphasis on winning at all costs
 - h. Do not force an unwilling child to participate in the playing of rugby. If the child is to play, he/she will do so in good time. There are other aspects of rugby other than playing which are equally fulfilling.
 - i. Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from rugby.
 - j. As a spectator, do not use profane language or harass referees, coaches, or players.
 - k. Do not publicly question the referee's judgement and never their honesty.
 - l. Recognize the value and importance of volunteer referees and coaches. They give of their time and resources to provide recreational activities for young people.
 - m. Encourage in your child an appreciation of mutual respect for teammates and opponents.
19. Spectators are requested to abide by the following Irish Rugby Football Union Code for Spectators:
 - a. Remember that although young people play organized rugby they are not miniature international players.
 - b. Be on your best behavior and lead by example. Do not use profane language or harass referees, players, or coaches.
 - c. Applaud good play by the visiting team as well as your own.
 - d. Show respect for you team's opponents. Without them, there would not be a match.
 - e. Condemn the use of violence in all forms at every opportunity
 - f. Verbal abuse of players and referees can not be accepted in any shape or form. Players or referees are not fair targets for ignorant behavior.
 - g. Encourage young players to play by the Laws of the Game.

Enclosure (3)
Youth Convoy rules

Away Games convoys:

1. For away games we will meet at one of two locations:
 - a. The Eagles on 6th and Washington when the team is traveling by ferry. The team will meet before 2:15 PM and take the 2:45 ferry to Seattle.
 - b. The park and ride at the Mullinex exit on highway 16 when the team is driving around. The team will meet at a time determined by the coaches.
2. The team will take the minimum number of automobiles. All available seats in vehicles with adult (non-youth player) drivers will be filled before a vehicle with a youth player driver will be allowed to drive.
3. The lead car will be a coach's vehicle and the tail car will be a coach's or parent's vehicle.
4. All vehicles in the convoy will have their lights on.
5. Each vehicle will have both a driver and a navigator. The Driver is responsible for operating the vehicle. The Navigator is responsible for using the map to navigate the route and for keeping the car ahead and behind in sight.
6. If contact is broken, the car noting that contact is broken will start blinking the high beams. Each vehicle then blinks their high beams until the head of the convoy stops. The lost vehicle will try to regain contact with the leading cars. If that does not occur in a reasonable amount of time, pull over to the side of the road and the tailing car will come forward and take control.
7. Travel at the posted speed limits. Speeding makes it harder for the following cars to keep up.
8. Try to stay in the same lane as the lead vehicle
9. Keep at least two car lengths between you and the leading vehicle.
10. The vehicle at the head of the convoy will use turn signals (exits, changing lanes, etc.). When the lead vehicle uses a turn signal, every vehicle in the convoy will also turn on their turn signal.
11. The team will rendezvous at the start point after the game. The only exceptions to this are vehicles driven by parents. All vehicles driven by youth players will stay at the rendezvous until released by a coach.

Enclosure (4) Equipment Requirements

1. Uniform

a. Practice:

- (1) Winter: Heavyweight cotton long sleeve sweat shirt (no short sleeve T-shirts), Summer: Lightweight long sleeved cotton shirt. In both cases it is better to wear Rugby jerseys
- (2) Winter: Sweatpants (youth players will not practice in just shorts), Summer: Rugby shorts
- (3) Rugby Boots (see below)
- (4) Mouth piece

b. Game: Team jersey: owned by the team

- (1) All Black Rugby shorts, heavy weight twill with neither exposed buttons nor back pocket
- (2) All Black socks, over the calf, tie downs are good ideas, tube type socks are not
- (3) Rugby Boots (see below)
- (4) Mouth piece

2. Rugby boots are a specialty footwear. Most football and soccer shoes are unacceptable because:

- (1) toe studs are not allowed, even on molded turf shoes
- (2) screw on cleats with male screws on the sole are not allowed
- (3) metallic studs that do not have the safety stud insignia, and plastic studs with metal tips are not allowed
- (4) Generally Rugby boots, and acceptable soccer shoes, have the following:
 - a. 6-8 front studs and 2 rear
 - b. female screw in on the sole
 - c. aluminum safety studs

3. Rugby Shorts are not soccer shorts. Generally, players should wear the NZ style shorts, they tend to be less expensive and sturdier. Shorts should have the following:

- (1) a drawstring
- (2) two front pockets
- (3) no rear pockets, or exposed buttons
- (4) made of heavy weight cotton twill

There is a tendency for shorts' manufacturers to make long legged NZ shorts similar to "jams". These are not very comfortable for the forwards, especially the tight five.

4. The mouthpiece is required for youth players, and strongly advised for the rest of the club, and should be form fitted to the player's teeth. Use of a mouth piece could have a major impact during a determination of "line of duty" injury for active duty players. A player should have a stash of three or four mouth pieces.
